

Paola Papanicolaou, Group Head of Transformation Intesa Sanpaolo

Graduated in economics at the University of Pisa, she is very experienced in Wealth Management, Private Banking, Project Management and Innovation. She joined Intesa Sanpaolo Group in 2015 initially in the Wealth Management area, leading the transformation of Fideuram from financial advisory to global wealth advisory. Previously she was Commercial Director of Generali Private Banking and Commercial Director for Central Italy of Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena. At Citibank she led the innovative channels. She held managerial roles in AT Kearney and was Project manager in several Olympic Committees. She has led the innovation department in Intesa Sanpaolo since 2018 and she is now Group Head of Transformation. She is a member of the Advisory Board of Neva Finventures. Member of the Board of Directors of Banca 5.